

I feel that XM Radio offers more than the average station wants to get involved with and that I do not mind paying for the extra service that I receive. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160. Instead of bringing down XM radio why make the other stations step up to where they should be.